Join Martha in a critical conversation about the reality of many undocumented immigrants in this country. This session will also talk about the importance of media representation, why it matters and how to push undocumented voices into the forefront. This will be part presentation with anecdotes from her own life as a DACA recipient and discussion as a group on these ideas and topics.

Attendees from all workshops will be entered into an opportunity drawing!

These workshops are a part of the One Book, One CSUF initiative. Everyone is welcome to attend regardless of their participation in the initiative. Learn more at together.fullerton.edu/one-book-one-csuf

Contact diversity@fullerton.edu if you have any questions.